The History

Therese Schwaab, born Mayer

Josef Schwaab

The founding of the Schwaab family goes back to the winemaker Nikolaus Schwaab, who moved to Koblenz in order to marry Anne Müller from Güls. While he ran a mill, he acquired new vineyards on the Mosel. Just a few years later, as head of the district, he led the fortunes of his new hometown for 15 years. His commitment laid the foundation for the current location of the winery. The wine house was originally founded by his son Josef Schwaab and his wife Therese as a wine tavern on the Mosel. Today, Johannes leads the wine house of his grandparents as a café and wine restaurant in a direct location on the Koblenz Marienberg and serves guests from all over the world with regional and rural cuisine.

Weingut Schwaab

Weingut Schwaab since 1890 in Koblenz

Wine from the Stone. Every brick build by hand and every year an unique wine. The Wine from the terrace has its own tradition in our winery, which acts since centuries. The Koblenzer Marienberg – most of the are in family property - counts to one of the best parts in the area of the Mosel. The historic cellar in the winery is a further mine. Today, its a place for experiences around the wine.

Schieferlinie
